The Duty of Union Men

Notwithstanding the various opinions which may be now entertained among those really desiring the perpetuity of the Union, concerning the policies pursued by the Administration and those they personally prefer we believe there will be no difference of opinion upon the one measure of subjugating rebellion by a firm and vigorous prosecution of the war No one object has ever been accomplished for the general good which has not met opposition on account of the difference of individual opinions as to the precise method of attaining the desired end The bitterest reviler of the Administration of Mr Lincoln cannot deny that he has kept the restoration of the nominally seceded States and the allegiance of their citizens as a foreground of his every measure His emancipation proclamations are founded upon the plainest principles of common sense and common equity and the day is not distant when any enlightened man will be ashamed to deny that it was the master-stroke of the age As goods and chattels slaves were as liable to confiscation as mules or other property continually used in the furtherance of the unholy rebellion and the application of the principle of confiscation was more effective in relation to negroes as they possessed an intelligence enabling them to carry out the purposes of the proclamation without the form of military seizure in each particular case The suspension of the writ of habeas corpus in the particular instances in which it has been exercised was as justifiable as would be the arrest without a warrant of any villain detected in the act of murder or arson It only requires the passage of time over the heated passions of an adverse partisanship to rank such suspensions on the part of President Lincoln far ahead of any now popular act in which President Jackson ever took the "responsibility"

We have among us many honest men who still adhere with a life long affection, to the fossil remains of the old Democratic organization They do not realize that the party with whom they operate to-day has forsaken every principle of true democracy, they cannot understand why the leaders can change any more than the principles, and knowing them to be immortal they cling with a tenacity bordering on the sublime to a party organization having nothing left of its original birthright but a name and that without the lustre its old doctrines of universal suffrage and majority rule cast around it The most ignoble servitude of the nineteenth century is that which binds honest Union men to the wreck of the Democratic party It is not only high time they were liberated on their own account but the progress of humanity and civilization demands it Is there a man endowed by the Almighty with sufficient intelligence to comprehend the dogmas of the pseudo Democratic party of to day who will accept them as the principles enunciated in olden time as Democratic? There is, then, no room in the Democratic ranks for a patriot to stand If fealty to a party is a duty is not fealty to a Government founded upon purely Democratic principles paramount? Honest men of all parties are called upon to renounce allegiance to such elements of political society as are used to subvert the Government and paralyze the arm of the Administration. They are called to awaken to a sense of their first and most imperative duty They are called to search—and no great penetration is required—the motives actuating every aspiring demagogue now mouthing in public and conspiring in private against the perpetuity of the Union, under the plea of opposing the Administration

The line of duty to be pursued by every American citizen having the good of his country at heart, requires no mapping out now Our people are too familiar with the issues thrust upon them by the rebellion to require teaching upon this point It is idle to say that men can be Union men and aid in carrying out the purposes of a party the leaders of which are avowedly disloyal No intelligent man can act with a party opposed to the Administration to day who is not disloyal in his heart who is not a traitor to his country and who does not thereby seek to plunge his family into the horrible miseries of a civil war In years gone by when Democrats for term after term held the ruling of the Nation, was ever surprise manifested or expressed because the minority did not revolt? No Then it was perfectly proper for those who were defeated to submit to the legal authority, and any attempt on the part of the disaffected would have met the punishment due to treason Now however when a few base-born scoundrels have got the leading strings of the Democracy and caused armed opposition to the legally constituted authorities, shall they be honored with the confidence and countenance of true Americans, even to the sacrifice of the Government? Let every true man draw out from such association give them no consolation countenance or support but stand by the Administration as the only authorized instrument for the preservation of the Union, in its prompt and effectual punishment of traitors, whether they be found in the armies of the rebellion, or crowding like midnight assassins, among the loyal and unsuspecting homes of the Northern States

THE CAMPAIGN OPENS —We are glad to observe that preparations are being made to buckle on the armor for the Presidential contest by the Union candidates for Presidential Electors A large poster is printed announcing that H N George and Geo L Woods accompanied by Hon J H Mitchell, will speak to their fellow citizens in different localities commencing at St Helens Tuesday, the 23d inst The opposing candidates are invited to be present and discuss the questions of the day Let our good Union neighbors attend the speaking, bring all their friends lend a hand each personally to help the cause along and we will roll up such a majority for Lincoln and Johnson in November as shall make the Copperhead heart then bless in despair

A gentleman who left Mobile on the 31st July, says that Hood has been reinforced by two divisions of Beauregard's corps from Richmond and two brigades from Mobile

Charleston and Wilmington are said to be nearly deserted by troops

The garrison at Mobile consists of only two brigades of regulars and Mobile militia So great were the fears that Mobile would be attacked between the 8th and 14th of July that at the urgent request and solicitations of the Governor and Mayor the troops which had been sent to reinforce Forrest were recalled

NASHVILLE, Aug 4 —Gen Stoneman sent a force of cavalry, 2 200 strong, on the 26th under Gen Ed McCook, to destroy the Macon and Western road They had destroyed 18 miles of the road from where they started and had captured a train of five hundred wagons that were going from Atlanta to Macon or Columbus A train was captured near Newman with 500 men and 127 officers The wagons were laden with valuable stores liquors and the private property of General Hood and others

After possessing themselves of what they wanted the wagons were burned McCook started to return with the booty but was overtaken by a rebel force under Ransom which was so large as to completely surround him A desperate engagement ensued, during which many of McCook's men escaped and found their way to Marietta It is supposed that about 2000 were captured The disaster is attributable to the troops partaking too freely of bad liquor that was found in the captured train Long's brigade consisted of the [illegible] and 4th Ohio 2d Indiana and 4th Regulars

NASHVILLE, Aug —Gen McCook, supposed to have been captured near Newman came in with 1200 of his men 500 had previously arrived at Marietta He was very successful in breaking the Macon road and capturing and destroying the wagons and railroad trains but was compelled to release the prisoners [illegible]

The Times [illegible] the Cincinnati Commercial [illegible] on [illegible] the battle of the 28th [illegible] About 2 [illegible] Tuesday [illegible] 15th or of the 14th [illegible] going out of Atlanta going [illegible] with [illegible] intent on of attacking [illegible] Upon this announcement our [illegible] to throw up [illegible] We had [illegible] complete the [illegible] with [illegible] fallen [illegible] I am [illegible] wave on [illegible] this was [illegible] About noon the rebels [illegible]

NEW YORK Aug 6 —A special to the World from Washington of the 5th says Reports from the Upper Potomac are very contradictory If any crossing has been effected by the rebels it was probably a large cavalry force under Imboden The movement of the column under Early are mysterious At the last account he was encamped between Winchester and Martinsburg

Persons think it is evident that the rebels have resolved upon a general invasion

NEW YORK Aug 5 —Early's headquarters are at Winchester A detachment of rebel cavalry is still on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad

WASHINGTON Aug 5 —Three hundred rebel cavalry have visited Hagerstown It is confirmed by official dispatches that three regiments of cavalry and two of infantry were strongly posted in and around the town The fact that the rebel expedition is accompanied by cavalry is a strong indication that this force is the advance of a large body of troops After crossing at Sheppardstown it appears they passed through Jurkstown and Sharpsburg and we are still in communication with the State line seven miles north of Hagerstown

Dispatches from Somerset received 10 o'clock this evening mentions a fight at New Creek in which the rebels were defeated by Kelly Our loss is 2 killed and 30 wounded

On the 19th the commander at Pensacola left that post with a small force, and the next day he came upon a body of about 400 of the enemy's cavalry, strongly entrenched at Fort Hudson After a sharp fight the rebels retreated, leaving all their ammunition, stores, official papers, &c.

THE REASON WHY —Two jovial sons of the Emerald Isle met on Front street Saturday evening and their conversation turned upon the remarkable [illegible] of the Police Court in our city, when one of them gave it as his opinion that "The [illegible] was owing to the high tariff on whiskey [illegible] see they [illegible] not raise the price of a glass [illegible] [illegible] keeper gathers it, and a man might drink a barrel of it, with no fears of [illegible] fighting" [illegible] likely he was right.

FREEDMEN'S RELIEF —A meeting will be held of the above Association at the Congregational Church in this city to-night, when all those who desire to ascertain the plan upon which it operates can be so Too many are predisposed to castobliquely upon any movement in favor of the negro, but we would remind all such that many indigent white families come in for a share of the contributions gathered under this name

THE PACIFIC LOADED.—We learn that a telegram was received in this city on Friday to the effect that the steamer Pacific was already full, and nearly 100 dray loads of freight had to be refused The steamer would not, however, for some reason, sail until to morrow It is said there is an immense quantity [illegible] awaiting transportation to this region

HE LIES LIKE A BULLETIN. — This phrase was a sarcasm invented in Napoleon's pithy and startling revelations when he was playing what his nephew is up to, the Grand Emperor. There is a newspaper with that name to which people about here are often tempted to apply the same compliment. It is amusing to note the [illegible] efforts of that paper to perfectly innocent of knowing any place on the Pacific coast out of San Francisco. California is the Flowery Kingdom and no Chinaman ever more cordially [illegible] his sweet [illegible] country than does this paper the Bay City and State. All [illegible] contemptible, ignorant. When the Oregonian detects and exposes its quibbling [illegible] ignorance of our great mining region and its [illegible] and increasing products [illegible] [illegible] northern coast [illegible] in Portland [illegible] our horses, our literature, in fact [illegible] that some day will make Oregon great [illegible] that paper [illegible] know and care little about. It may be a style [illegible] great metropolis [illegible] Portland [illegible] Rome. It may be horrified [illegible] all places but our own. But [illegible] decidedly nobbish and it appears to us that the Bulletin must in return for its large patronage in this quarter entirely change its bias and swing [illegible] into the truth occasionally, especially when [illegible] by cards [illegible] that every down steamer take to the Bay [illegible] from Oregon [illegible] Idaho [illegible] from Washington Territory [illegible] same time admit that the settlements in Oregon, at Portland, the Dalles and elsewhere are a thing more, at the present day.

ABOUT SALARIES.—The Portland correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin, alluding to the recent act of Congress giving Portland two Inspectors of steamboats, makes use of the following with regard to their compensation, which is fixed at $[illegible] per annum:

By the Act of 18[illegible], the same officers in the New York [illegible] representation.

TELEGRAPHIC CABLE.—The steamship Oregon brought two very heavy coils of telegraphic cable to this city, on her last trip, for the extension to Victoria. One of these coils contains about six tons weight, and one about 2800 lbs. It is of the same character of cable as that which now lies imbedded in the Atlantic [illegible] the mother country with America. We trust [illegible] under the direction of Superintendent Haines will be more successful in connecting the [illegible] with us. The cable will be used [illegible] points on the route of the line, across low ground, sloughs and the Columbia river.

A BEER FOUNTAIN.—An amusing sight was witnessed on Saturday, in front of the Library Rooms, on First street, by a number of spectators. A man was driving a horse and wagon down the street with a number of kegs of the celebrated Teutonic beverage on board, when, in that vicinity, one of the bungs went off like a gun shot, and the lager flew into the air some twenty feet upward, and continued to [illegible] the street as the vehicle progressed. The driver [illegible] attempted to stop the rise in beer but was unsuccessful until apparently about forty gallons of froth and fluid had escaped from the plethoric keg, which originally was not supposed to hold more than one quarter that amount.

MAD DOGS.—We understand that a raving dog was dispatched with an axe, in the hands of a citizen living on Main street, in this city, on Saturday last. The calendar denotes that these are the days when the dog star Sirius rises and sets with the sun, which is commonly admitted to be a season when the dangerous plague of hydrophobia is very apt to rage among the canine species. If there is any virtue in the sign we would recommend our dog [illegible] to use extra precaution for the benefit of the community. Dog days commence with the latter part of July, and end with the beginning of September.

AN INVOICE OF QUARTZ ROCK.—Mr. Donovan, of the Owyhee district, arrived in our city a few days since with twelve hundred pounds of quartz rock from the Home Ticket lode, which he is taking to San Francisco for a thoroughly practical test. We have in this invoice of rock the most indubitable evidences of the genuine wealth abounding in that [illegible] section. A tunnel similar to the celebrated "Amazon Tunnel" in Nevada will be run under this lode in a short time, and without exaggeration it will make the best strike ever yet known on the coast. The indications seem to present full [illegible] per cent. of metal in this rock.

AN OREGON INVENTION IN THE EAST.—The Worcester Massachusetts Daily Spy notices an exhibition in that city recently of "Jacobs' Patent Wheel Dressing Machines," and states that the patent rights are now owned by a company of gentlemen with ample capital who propose to bring the machines before the public immediately. The fact is mentioned as being creditable to the Worcester mechanics that they have secured the contracts to build the new models of excellence. The patentee, Mr. Jacobs, hails from Portland, Oregon, and is well known among our citizens.

THE RASON WHY.—Two jovial sons of the Emerald Isle met on Front street Saturday evening and their conversation turned upon the remarkable quietude of the Police Court in our city, when one of them gave it as his opinion that "the reason of it was owing to the high tariffe on whiskey [illegible] the price of a glass [illegible] the barkeeper [illegible] and a man might drink a barrel of it, with no fears of his fighting." Very likely he was right.

FREEDMAN'S RELIEF.—A meeting will be held of the above Association at the Congregational Church in this city to night, when all those who desire to ascertain the plan upon which it operates can do so. Too many are predisposed to cast obloquy upon any movement in favor of the negro, but we would remind all such that many indigent white families come in for a share of the contributions gathered under this name.

THE PACIFIC LOADED.—We learn that a telegram was received in this city on Friday to the effect that the steamer Pacific was already full and nearly 100 dray loads of freight had to be refused. The steamer would not, however, for some reason sail until to morrow. It is said there is an immense quantity of goods awaiting transportation to this region.

ARRIVAL OF THE ALMATIA.—The bark Almatia, A B Richardson Master, arrived in this city on Saturday last from San Francisco. She left the latter place on Wednesday the [illegible] ult, crossed the bar on the [illegible] inst, discharged a portion of her cargo at Astoria and [illegible] to Portland [illegible] 500 tons of freight.

COMMERCIAL.—The bark [illegible] Master, and the bark [illegible] William [illegible] are in the Columbia river. The former loaded with lumber from Rainier and Oak Point for San Francisco, and the latter coming this way with a cargo of merchandise.

THE SANITARY [illegible] is in receipt of a neat letter of thanks dated [illegible] July 30, expressed by the Secretary of the Ladies Aid Society, and tendered to Theodore and Henry Mansfield of this city, for their donation.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage it is unequaled as an invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a [illegible] stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers generally. jy26dam

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers [illegible]

Periodical Headaches.—[illegible] Tic Douloureux, the most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. [illegible] Dyspepsia and Diarrhoea are frequently but [illegible] forms of intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy often result from the same malarious cause. For such Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. [illegible] of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.

Jonathan's Speech

What [illegible] you standin roun' an' shirkin
Watchin others in the strife,
Waitin while your country's workin
Tuggin for the very life?—
O I'd be ashamed to own it!
'Fore I would such an insult stain,
If I was a man I'd show it
Let 'em know I was a man!

Now's the time—your country's callin
Callin on you an' every one
She don't want no stingy crawlin
Sneakin off as some have done
An' I tell you [illegible] and squarely,
That this war must be put through
Better treat your country fairly—
Fairly as she's done by you

What's the use of your money making,
All the money you could make—
Why, taint worth a Reb man's takin
When his country is at stake
And I tell you, mark my saying
You will come to understand
That the thing that is most paying
Is the saving of the land.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN, and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica A A HAYES M D, IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

without a solvent This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth & Dr Mint, Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published to the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly, July 6, 1860, page 76)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full strong and florid
